PhD Position in Economics

The chair of “International and Monetary Macroeconomics” (Volker Hahn, http://www.wiwi.uni-konstanz.de/hahn/) at the University of Konstanz invites applications for a position as a research assistant. Gross salary will be 50% of a full time position in accordance with the regulations of German TV-L13.

The expected starting date is 1 October 2021. The initial contract will have a duration of one to three years (with a possible extension). The successful candidate will contribute to the chair’s research and teaching responsibilities. She or he is expected to participate in the Graduate School of the Social and Behavioral Sciences at the University of Konstanz (https://www.gsbs.uni-konstanz.de/).

Applicants should have excellent analytical and mathematical skills as well as an interest in the research questions addressed by the chair (in Monetary Economics, Macroeconomics, and Political Economy). Coding skills (e.g. in matlab, python, Fortran, ...) are advantageous, but not strictly necessary. A very good scientific graduate degree in economics, mathematics, physics, or related fields is mandatory. Fluency in English is required.

Please apply via the Graduate School of the Social and Behavioral Sciences https://www.gsbs.uni-konstanz.de/application/how-to-apply/. The deadline is 15 April 2021. In addition, you may also send your cover letter, academic transcripts, CV, and at least one letter of recommendation by e-mail to Volker Hahn, office.imm@uni-konstanz.de.
